ORDER

This case is before the Court on its own motion for correction of the defendant's sentence pursuant to Rule 35 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. On November 4, 1976, the defendant was sentenced to a term of imprisonment for a violation of Title 21, United States Code, Section 846, in Count I of the above-cited case. In addition to the term of imprisonment imposed in Count I, a Four year special parole term was imposed upon the defendant. On June 16, 1980, the United States Supreme Court held that a special parole term may not be imposed for a narcotics conspiracy violation under Section 846. Bifulco v. United States, No. 79-5010 (June 16, 1980).

For the foregoing reason, it is therefore ordered that the special parole term heretofore imposed upon the defendant in Count I of the Indictment is hereby vacated.

This case is before the Court on its own motion for correction of the defendant's sentence pursuant to Rule 35 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. On April 12, 1979, the defendant was sentenced to a term of imprisonment for a violation of Title 21, United States Code, Section 846, in Count I of the above-cited case. In addition to the term of imprisonment imposed in Count I, a three-year special parole term was imposed upon the defendant. On June 16, 1980, the United States Supreme Court held that a special parole term may not be imposed for a narcotics conspiracy violation under Section 846. Bifulco v. United States, No. 79-5010 (June 16, 1980).

For the foregoing reason, it is therefore ordered that the special parole term heretofore imposed upon the defendant in Count I of the Indictment is hereby vacated.

This case is less as	Jack C. Silver, Clork U. S. DISTRICT COURT

This case is before the Court on its own motion for correction of the defendant's sentence pursuant to Rule 35 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. On November 16, 1979, the defendant was sentenced to a term of imprisonment for a violation of Title 21, United States Code, Section 846, in Count I of the above-cited case. In addition to the term of imprisonment imposed in Count I, a Three year special parole term was imposed upon the defendant. On June 16, 1980, the United States Supreme Court held that a special parole term may not be imposed for a narcotics conspiracy violation under Section 846. Bifulco v. United States, No. 79-5010 (June 16, 1980).

For the foregoing reason, it is therefore ordered that the special parole term heretofore imposed upon the defendant in Count I of the Indictment is hereby vacated.
